SUBJECT / TITLE

Human rights are a set of rights which every human is entitled to. Every human being is inherited with these rights no matter what caste, creed, gender, the economic status they belong to. Human rights are very important for making sure that all humans get treated equally. They are in fact essential for a good standard of living in the world.

In this awareness programme he stressed about the importance of human rights that believed by the great philosophers like Socrates, Plato and Aristotle were the forerunners of Human Rights in 477BC-190BC. Human rights are essentially divided into two categories of civil, political and social rights. This classification is important because it clears the concept of human rights further. Plus, they also make humans realize their role in different sphere.

In short, he concluded with the human rights are very essential for a happy living of human beings. However, these days they are violated endlessly and we need to come together to tackle this issues.
